GENERAL ORDER

To the extent this Order differs from other orders of the Court on this subject, this Order supersedes and replaces those orders.

On August 6, 2015 and August 21, 2019, respectively, this Court issued orders appointing counsel for all indigent defendants pursuing relief under the decision in Johnson v. United States, 576 U.S. 591 (2015) and under the decisions in Rehaif v. United States, 588 U.S. ___, 139 S.Ct. 2191 (2019) and United States v. Davis, 588 U.S. ___, 139 S.Ct. 2319, 2336 (2019).

The passage of time since these decisions issued has significantly reduced the need for the assistance of counsel to properly determine whether a defendant is entitled to relief based on these decisions. In light of this, counsel will no longer be automatically appointed. Counsel may, however, be appointed pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act on a case-by-case basis in the discretion of the presiding judge.

Accordingly, the Court's orders of August 6, 2015 and August 21, 2019 are VACATED.

SO ORDERED.

For the Court,

Date: 9/21/2023

_____
Hon. Tanya Walton Pratt, Chief Judge
United States District Court
Southern District of Indiana
